

Mathia Nalappan
General Manager, Nokia South Africa

Since the beginning of 2008, Mathia has had responsibility for the Nokia business in South Africa. South Africa is part of Nokia's greater Middle East and Africa region. His responsibilities include overall business strategy, sales, marketing, channel, business and team development as well as customer care.

Mathia joined the SA team from Nokia's Asia-Pacific office in Singapore where he was the VP of Enterprise Solutions Asia-Pacific business.

He joined Nokia in 2004 having previously held several senior management roles at Motorola, Hewlett-Packard and Sendo Asia-Pacific.

Mathia was born in Singapore and has worked across the Asia-Pacific region and now South Africa. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Electronics Engineering from University of Singapore. He also has post-graduate diplomas in International Marketing Management and Systems Analysis.

He now lives in Johannesburg, South Africa, with his wife and 1 daughter.

Mathia Nalappan - General Manager, Nokia South Africa